CHILDREN'S HOME LAUDED.

Mass Meeting Held to Aid Institution at Barcroft, Va.

A mass meeting to explain the work being done by the Washington Emergency Home, at Barcroft, Va., was held at Odd Fellows Hall, 423 Seventh street northwest, last night. The home was started a little over a year ago by Rev. Patrick Murphy, of this city. The work of the institution since its organization was reviewed by all the speakers.

Mrs. Barringer, superintendent of the home, stated that at present forty children are being cared for at the home. Contributions for its support, it was announced, will be received by either Dr. Murphy or Mrs. Lee Barringer.

SWISS MILITARY SYSTEM LAUDED

Judge Ballou Addresses Members of Women's Training Camp at Chevy Chase.

DREXEL BIDDLE SPEAKS

Attendance at Lectures Made Compulsory—Service Planned for Sunday Afternoon.

The United States will not become adequately prepared until it adopts a military system similar to the Swiss, according to Judge Sidney Ballou, who was one of the speakers at the Woman's Preparedness Camp at Chevy Chase yesterday afternoon.

Judge Ballou does not believe that it is necessary to wait to fight to be drawn into a war. On the contrary, he thinks most nations are forced into it against their will, and that it was only because the Swiss had a military system which enabled them three days after the present war was declared to mobilize a force of 300,000 men, and back it up with an additional force of a quarter of a million men, that they escaped being drawn into the present war in Europe.

Drexel Biddle, Philadelphia, and Miss Fox were also on the program, and the Marine Band played outside of the big tent between the speeches.

Attendance at the lectures was made compulsory yesterday, and for the first time the camp marched to them in company formation.

Services on Sunday.

Commandant Poe announced that on Sunday afternoon Rev. Roland Cotton Smith, of St. John's Church, will conduct religious services in the assembly tent at 3:30, to which the public is invited.

Examinations in first aid have been announced as follows: Capt. Jones, Dr. Larkin, Surgeon Stepp, and Dr. Kearney's classes on Saturday, and Dr. Borden's on Monday.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Burnett will be at home to her friends from 5 to 7 at a tea in honor of the graduates of the school.

The officers of the day yesterday was Lieut. Violet Wilder, with Misses Frances Brookes, Dorothy Sturges, Lisa Atkinson, and Frances Lippitt as guards.

It is rumored that Dr. Noyes, the camp physician, will be detached for service on the border.

Today's lecturers will be Dr. E. A. Grosvenor, of Amherst College; Mrs. Ann J. George, and Dr. Douglas Putnam Birnie.

The Alexandria Odd Fellows, who have been attending the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Virginia in session at Lynchburg, have returned home.

Edgar Warfield, sr., Booker C. Hall and J. B. Spicer, of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, will attend the reunion of United Confederate Veterans to be held in Birmingham, Ala., beginning May 16. They will leave Sunday.

MY TIRED FEET

ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let Your Sore, Swollen, Aching Feet Spread Out in a Bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, calluses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous excretions which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 5 cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—Adv.

The Swan Song of "Frank Danby" was it written in the agony of death or when the author was under the influence of drugs? Judge for yourself from the last message which "Frank Danby" (Mrs. Julia Frankav) penned as an epilogue to her posthumous novel, "Twilight."

"Twilight" is my swan song. I shall never write another novel," said this most prolific and popular of American novelists at the very beginning of this most unusual article which appears exclusively next Sunday.

U-BOAT CONTROVERSY REGARDED AS CLOSED

State Department Likely to Inquire as to Punishment Meted Out to Submarine Commanders, However.

Officials of the State Department regard the submarine issue as closed by Germany's acceptance of President Wilson's last note. Department officials believe that the principle over which the United States and Germany have been in controversy has been established. What remains for settlement is an agreement upon details.

There are two details to be settled: First, the determination of whether adequate punishment has been meted out to the offending submarine commanders; and, second, the matter of indemnity to Americans injured in the Sussex attack and to the families of those lost with the Lusitania and Arabic.

Secretary Lansing said yesterday the similar inquiry also may be made in the case of the Ancona, sunk by an State Department probably will make inquiries to learn what punishment the commanders of the destroyers of the Sussex and the Arabic received. A Austrian submarine.

PLANS SUNRISE TRAFFIC TALKS

Maj. Pullman Will Have Policemen Lecture to Truck Drivers on Safety First—PROJECT IS OUTLINED

PROJECT IS OUTLINED

Program Begins in About Month. Safety-First Association Re-elects Officers.

Sunrise lectures on safety-first rules before auto-truck drivers by policemen is the plan of Superintendent of police Pullman, which he announced Wednesday night at the annual meeting of the Washington Safety First Association. One of the policies of the department is the instilling in the public mind of caution in traffic conduct.

The latest expression of the policy will be the lectures before congregated drivers of the large stores. They will be assembled at their garage or store headquarters before the day's business is commenced and thoroughly instructed on how to drive an automobile safely and in accordance with traffic regulations.

Maj. Pullman is being given the cooperation of the majority of business men of the District, he said. The lectures will begin in about a month. Other speakers at the meeting were A. J. Driscoll, Selden M. Ely, R. L. Haycock, J. Clinton Hatt, G. A. Lyon, Prof. W. B. Patterson, W. F. Peabody, A. E. Shoemaker, C. N. Thompson, and Dr. L. D. Walter.

Officers re-elected were the president, William F. Peabody; W. B. Patterson, second vice president; secretary, J. Clinton Hatt, who begins a fourth term, and treasurer, Edgar D. Thompson. Dr. L. D. Walter was elected second vice president.

Maj. Pullman was elected a director, as was Prof. C. N. Thompson. The following directors were re-elected: William F. Peabody, Daniel W. Edelin, Walter B. Patterson, J. Clinton Hatt, Edgar D. Thompson, G. A. Lyon, Aloysius J. Driscoll, L. D. Walter, Frank A. Woodfield, Albert E. Shoemaker, George W. Evans, Selden M. Ely, William F. Dement, Cuno H. Rudolph, W. W. Nairn, Miss Flora L. Hendley, and Mrs. W. W. Alleger.

Would Change Postal Law.

The House yesterday adopted the conference report on the bill amending the postal savings law. The amendment provides that instead of limiting deposits to $100 in any one month, the balance to the credit of any person upon which interest is payable shall not exceed $1,000, not including accumulated interest. The measure will go to the President for his signature.

ROADS OWN WATER LINES.

I. C. C. Says Twenty-seven Rail Systems Rule Steamers.

The Interstate Commerce Commission, after a two-year investigation, yesterday afternoon reported to the Senate that twenty-seven great railroad systems control a large part of the steamship lines that are competitors. The report was made in response to a special resolution in 1914 calling for this information, with the view of enacting legislation to force changes.

The commission reported that the railroads control 38 steam vessels, and that in a large part of the cases these vessels are operated by steamship lines that are the only water competitors of the railroads that own them.

DIOCESAN MEETING ENDS.

Rev. Dr. McKim and H. L. Rust Elected Deputies to Gathering.

The annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Washington came to a close at Emmanuel Church, Anacostia, yesterday afternoon with the counting of ballots in the election of deputies to the general convention. Incomplete returns showed that Rev. Randolph H. McKim and H. L. Rust had been elected.

Resolutions indorsing the views of Bishop Alfred Harding in regard to work among foreign immigrants and among colored people were adopted at the morning session yesterday. Yesterday's session was opened with a celebration of communion by Bishop Harding, assisted by Rev. Randolph H. McKim, Dean Bratenshl, Archdeacon Richard P. Williams, and Rev. Dr. C. E. Buck, secretary of the missions committee.
